Preference for this scholarship is given to a deserving student who is either sight or hearing impaired or someone with diabetes. It may also be given to a son, daughter, grandchild, spouse or member of the Korner Lions Club, or other qualifying applicants.

Each year $ 1,000.00 is allocated by the Korner Lions Club for this purpose. Funds for this project come from other Lions Club fund raising including fruit sales, ticket sales and Hamburgers in the Parks, pancake feeds and mint sales.

The Korner Lions Club meets 7 a.m. on the second and fourth Mondays of each month at the Airport International Inn in Williston. This scholarship program is one of many projects the Lions contribute to as they follow their motto: “We serve”. Applications for scholarships are reviewed by the scholarship committee who recommends to the Club board the recipients of the Korner Lions Scholarship.
